Sir:

Re: Personal Reference for
Reverend Dr. Grady Mayeaux

Reverend Grady Mayeaux is a God fearing man. He is also a very intelligent and organized. He can pull up grants hidden deep into the computer world. In the very same breath, he can speak to you as though the Lord has just given him a word for you.

He seeks no honor or recognition for his work. His only endeavor is to help people whom what to work for God. I believe he is real. Whatever he promises he will do, you can expect him to do it.

I have known him to drive across 2 states to help repair a senior's home. He feeds the hungry around the world and around his own neighborhood. There are never any questions asked, if you are hungry, he will feed you.

As a Director, myself, it is my professional opinion, that this man can do any high level position you select for him. He will be fair and impartial. Reverend Mayeaux, is a manager of several levels of education, from students all over the world, he manages several warehouses, and still finds time to teach religion and helps other with grant writing.

Reverend Grady is a multitalented man that will excel if given the chance. He is committed to doing everything that he touches, with excellence. He is honest, frank, humble and fair.

I recommend this man, without any reservation, for this very important position.

Sincerely,

Merriam Washington
