Re: Personal Reference for
Reverend Dr. Grady Mayeaux

Reverend Grady Mayeaux is a great man of God. He seeks to help anyone in need. He is about doing the Father's business. I believe he is able to handle any high management position, because he juggles many hats here, in Atlanta.

This man believes deeply in what he does. He is driven and unselfishly gives to anyone.

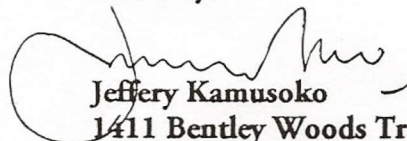

Reverend Mayeaux, manages several levels of education, from students all over the world. He encourages prayer and education, especially for every minister called by God.

Reverend Grady and his wife Annette have stay up all night to help some one else prepare a proposal for their dream. He has many spiritual gifts, including discernment. He can feel those that are as desperately driven, as he is, to do God's work in the field of missions.

Reverend is truly lead by God. He was called to preach since age 16. He knows God's way and I believe he will not turn from it. A person of his caliber, strong beliefs and moral fortitude would be invaluable. He is deliberately pragmatic in his approach to all, because to him, everybody is somebody. He code of fairness and equality is undeniable.

I highly recommend this man to head you faith based Program. He will not disappoint you because, in do so, he would disappoint God and that he would not do for anything or anyone. He is a fine upstanding man. I pray God grants him the opportunity to help so many people.

Sincerely,
