To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great enthusiasm that I provide this unqualified recommendation for my friend, Grady Mayeaux, for an adjunct faculty position with your Bible College.

My wife and I have known Dr. Mayeaux for approximately two years and have had the privilege of working with him in support of his Exegetical Institute and his outreach ministries. From my observations Dr. Mayeaux's view of the Church is to follow the teachings of Jesus and to impart these teachings to others. He does more than follow; he is a leader and speaks with the authority that comes from his extensive knowledge of this subject.

My educational credentials include a Master of Business Administration and many year of managerial and leadership positions within the business community, therefore I feel that I am qualified to state that Dr. Mayeaux's organizational and administrative accomplishments have been outstanding and include successful non-profit grant writing and teaching courses in preparation of non-profit grant solicitations. He also is an excellent Bible instructor. His Ministry is well directed and he freely shares his knowledge with others. Dr. Mayeaux is well known in the local community and has earned the respect from all who know him.

We have observed Dr. Mayeaux to be an extremely caring individual who puts the needs of others before his own. His outreach efforts extend into many segments of our local communities including his outstanding efforts helping various Hispanic ministries and working with the jail inmate Ministries. His accomplishments also include assisting many small, struggling ministries in whatever way that he can.

Dr. Mayeaux, because of his extensive background in the secular as well as the Christian communities, has the ability to communicate comfortably with those from many different social, economic, and educational levels.

It is without reservation that I recommend Dr. Grady Mayeaux for any position for which he may be considered. I feel that anyone with whom he has contact will benefit from the association.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Jones
