To Whom It May Concern:

I have been acquainted with Grady and Annette Mayeaux since 1999. They initially operated their Ecoquest business from their home. Both Dr. Mayeaux and Mrs. Mayeaux had offices in the home. They also had a downstairs basement area where they stored food for the food ministry. They eventually expanded to include space in a detached building on the property where they held classes and meetings. As the business continued to grow, around 2001, they secured space at 898 McDaniel Mill Road, where they had a large two-sided warehouse. Meetings were held on the smaller side, an airy 18x36 room. The larger space was approximately 36x36 and was where the food storage and storage of goods for the food and indigent ministry occurred. The Mayeaux held weekly meetings in both locations for the business, as well as many classes. Meals were served at many of the meetings, both in the home and at the warehouse. Meetings were comprised of anywhere from two or three people to groups of 20 or more.

The Mayeaux's continued to operate the Ecoquest business in the McDaniel Mill Road location until 2005, after which they relocated to Jacksonville Florida.
